Happy village.

Actually, I live in a pretty interesting place which is called Starodaleiskoe. There are a lot of remarkable events and situations in the life of my homovillage, so I am going to describe some of them in this article.

The official data show that the population of Starodaleiskoe includes six thousand people. According to the latest survey, a major part of citizens in my village are satisfied with their standard of living. Talking about community, I ought to say that there are a big number of kind, sociable and responsible people in my homovillage.

Recently, a very essential event was conducted in Starodaleiskoe. To keep the long story short, it was 'The anniversary of Tret'yakovskiy district'. Moreover, my village got a new sport club which is called 'Leader'. It happened one year ago.

The routine life of my village is full of interesting things, such as very frequent contests for the youth in the library or different sport competitions.

Starodaleiskoe is a homovillage for many famous people. One of them is Sergei Tarasov. He is the great biathlonist which won both the world championships and the Olympic games.
